Anticipated Removal of all Difficulties in the way of the Congress-The Scheme of a British Protectorate over Asiatic Turkey.

Ty Cable to the News. LONDON, May 30.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says: At one moment, after Count Schouvaloff's arrival in London, an agreement appeared very doubtful, but the obstacle has been removed, and hopes of peace are strengthening daily. It may be considered certain that the Congress will meet at an early date; but by no means is it certain that it is possible to conciliate all the conflicting interests therein. It is feared, in the meanwhile, that the temper provoked by the war party in Constantinople is not peaceful. The Times' Vienua correspondent exormula of the invitation binding ber to permit the free discussion of all quesions upon the condition that she can first come to an understanding with England as to the modifications to be proposed at the Congress. The correspondent concludes: The removal of the difficulties in the way of the Con-gress, is anticipated here as hopefully It is announced that the Radzi palace in Berlin, is being prepared for the siting of the Congress.

The Times, in its leading editorial, says it may be safely concluded that the prospects are more hopeful than hitherto: but some not unimportant points must be settled before the invitations are finally issued.

A Times dispatch from Athens reports that the Cretans have refused the amnesty offered through the British Consul, but offered to accept a regular

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna despatch says the propositions which Count Schouvaloff took to London, and which appear to have been substantially accepted, were, that the southern boundary of Bulgaria is to be a line from Burgas to Philippopolis and Vranja, Turkey o retain Batoum on the condition of the demolition of the Danubian fortresses, the substitution of European for Russian control in carrying out the treaty, and the remaining questions to e left to the Congress. It now seems probable that the scheme for a British protectorate over Asiaticurkey has really been put forward by the Government. The "Times" returns to the subject this morning, and in a leading article says: "The Constitu-tional ministry in Turkey is at present a mere dream. There must be some permanent centre of force to control by is attraction the shifting elements of personal will or caprice that control he force, and it is to be hoped the orte will consent to accept at our hands and thus introduce the only principle of stability into its government, of which it is yet capable. A letter to the Daily News from Constantinople, explaining the recent change of position made by the Russian forces says, the country between San Stefano and Adrianople is exceedingly malarious, and that 15,000 Russians on that line have died, mostly of fever, within the past two months.

NEW YORK, May 30 .- William Cullen Bryant, after two hours exposure to the sun at the unveiling of the bust of Mazzini, fell, striking his head heavily, and became insensible. He remains partially unconscious. It was impossible at that time to judge, since Mr. Bryant resisted every effort to examine him by physical contact. Key Speaks Out -- A Letter to Southern Democrats.

WASHINGTON, May 28. In lieu of a personal answer to many letters received from friends in the South, disclaiming sympathy with any effort to unseat President Hayes, Postmaster General Key has written the following open letter to the people of the South:

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The circumstances attending the passage of the quent declarations of many influential Democratic politicians and journalists, excellent diction. evidence that if both houses of the Forty-sixth Congress are Democratic, the majority intend to oust President Hayes and inaugurate Mr. Tilden.

The title of President Haves was settled irrevocably by the Forty-fourth Congress in the act creating the Electoral Commission, under which he was legally declared elected and legally inaugurated. The Forty-fifth Congress has no more right to dispute his electien than he has to question the title of any victorious contestant to his seat in that body. The Forty-sixth Congress will have no more right to ignore him and to recognize his defeated contestant Mr. Tilden, than Mr. Hayes would Democrat whom he might consider to olina. have been wrongfully seated or fraudulently elected. The leaders in this desperate attempt to Mexicanize our insti tutions, rely confidently upon the "solid South" to furnish the bulk of the Domocratic majority in the next House of Representatives, the Senate being al ready secured. Remembering the encouragement which the Northern Democrats in 1860 and 1861 extended to the Southern States to secede, and the manner in which their promises of aid and movement with the certainty that when | SMITH FOR CHIEF JUSTICE-MURRAY 80the inevitable hour of peril comes they will again be left unassisted and alone to meet the storm from the North, once more united by this attempt to revive tion was placed on the Prospect, Park an issue whose settlement was forced by public opinion upon an unwilling Congress? In the dark days of February, 1877, when civil war over the disputed election was imminent, and pacriots trembled for the safety of the Republican institutions, the Southern members averted the danger by compelling the completion of the electoral count under the law which parties in Congress had enacted. But now the representatives from the Southern States, with a very few exceptions, have joined a movement to subvert the results of their former patriotic action, and to remand the country to that anarchy from which less than two years ago it was saved by their efforts. Grant that in permitting South, instead of strangers. President | How do you like the name? Hayes but discharged his constitutional duty, does that excuse the Southern Representatives for attempting to invalidate his title, which they established, or will it justify them in bringing the country again in danger of civil war, in the effort to unseat him and inaugurate Mr. Tilden? FACING A CIVIL WAR. The South must now face the most momentous crisis in its history since 1861. To indorse the recent conduct of their representatives is to admit the take into consideration the propriety of truth of the charge that the people of the South care nothing for the welfare of the Union, desire the de wnfall of the republic and would rejoice to see it again involved in civil war. If their representatives have not reflected their sentiments, as I believe to be the case, they the people of the Southern States should take care that in the Forty-Sixth Congress they are represented by men who will defeat the disturbers of the public peace and prevent the Mexithis they may be compelled to act Independent of the Democratic party. Recent events have demonstrated the inability of Democratic members of Congress to resist the mandates of the caucus and the terrors of the party lash, the one weilded and the other inspired 3rd, That his visit to New Berne, in by men who seem willing to endanger mand to ignore Mr. Hayes as President and to recognize Mr. Tilden?

THE DUTY OF THE SOUTH. It is therefore the duty of the Southern people to afford a crowning evidence of their renewed devotion to the Union, in which they now enjoy every right of citizenship and subjected to no restric-tion not laid upon every citizen, by sending representatives to the Forty-sixth Congress pledged to resist at all hazards the revolutionary schemes of the mischief-makers who seemed to have gained control of the House of Representatives of the Forty-fifth Congress. To this end the people in every district should meet, publicly organize and resolve to support no person for Congress who has given aid to this movement, and who will not pledge himself to sustain the title of President Hayes during the term for which he was elected against all attempts at its overthrow. Only in this way can a grave danger to the republic be averted and convincing proof be given that the confidence was not misplaced which president Hayes manifested in the outh when he withdrew the troops from the State Houses of South Carolina and Louisaina. I have spoken plainly and earnestly, for I feel that I should be unworthy to represent the South in the administration were I to remain silent now. Invited to the Cabinet as a Southern man to see that justice was a good crop will be made. done to the South required neither to apologize for my record nor to disown my political principles; it is my duty now to warn the people of the South of the danger which threatens the country. No man need hope that the schemes of the men who have engineered the movement to unseat President Hayes can be carried without a bloody civil war. To avert this danger

Dr. O. L. Ellis, don't think the State or trade would be benefitted by excluding them. Key Comfortable. (New York World Special.)

There does not appear to be any truth whatever in the rumors here that the President has decided to make a change in the Cabinet by asking Mr. Key to resign, on the ground that the Southern Democrats voted for the investigation of the electoral frauds in the face of the President's so-called policy of reconcili-ation. Leading Republicans who have commented on the story say very frank-ly that the sacrifice of Mr. Key would not contribute to any restoration of barmony between them and the Administration. Personally they commend Mr. Key, and say that his politics are no more objectionable to them than those of Mr. Schurz, and that it would be absurd to displace one without the other. Even then they add that it would be merely a confession that the Southern policy was a mistake, for it cannot be retraced or interfered with. A Western ex-Governor who saw the President to-day came away satisfied that there is no Cabinet change contem-plated, and that the President is but little annoyed over the investigation. "He is as screne as ever," adds this gentleman, "and appears to have no fear of the result."

JOHN C. L. GUDGER, of Haywood.

In the Harnett county Convention on Saturday last, Governor Vance was endorsed for the Senate of the United

Is the News for Vance for the Sen ate? Yes. Why? Because such is the predominant sentiment of the North Carolina Democracy, and as an exponent of Democratic sentiment it could not be otherwise. The singular unanimity of the masses on this subject is equivalent to a party nomination Therefore the News must cease its pretensions as an agent of Democratic sentiment, or wield its support in the direction indicated by the Democratic Scales and Yeates. Referring to a paragraph in the News stating that Beaufort county had instructed her congressional delegates for the renomination of Mr. Yeates, a contemporary says :-"By endorsing Hon. Jesse J. Yeates, Beaufort county endorses the conspiracy by which Hayes was put into the White House, Messrs, Yeates and Scales were the only members of the North Carolina delegation who proved themselves traitors to the Democratic party, by voting to complete the electoral count. We cannot see that these gentlemen have any further claims on the Democratic party."

One does not see the propriety or justice of this reading out of the party. The completion of the electoral count in the spring of 1877 was a very serious question, and those gentlemen called upon to decide it by their action, standing in the midst of a crisis, were confronted by mortal peril to the country. It was a fine field for the display of matchless heroism, and it is told of the "Confederate Brigadiers" that they me the issue in a manner to remind one of the spirit and fortitude of those days in which was heard the "Rebel yell."

the Southern delegation in Congress occupies before the country at large, much is due to the attitude which the Southerners in the National Legislature, have, on every occasion, maintained toward the Union. No sacrifice they have made for the peace and repose of the country has been in vain. They have the approbation of their own consciences, and the applause and commendation of their countrymen. The gentlemen above referred to had a perfect right, and it was their duty to exercise their best judgment in the premises, nor therefor has any one ground for calling in question their party fealty or their patriotism. When they wore the military uniform of North Carolina it is not recorded of either that he ever failed in the hour of duty, or quailed before any danger; and as the representatives now in Congress of the State they then served so well, neither their actions nor their motives will be questioned by a people who know the stuff of which they are made.

Their action in the electoral count may have been a mistake, or it may not have been. It can be said, however, that it was an example of the highest fortitude on the part of the Southern Democrats of which the history of this country makes mention. Satisfied, as well as of their own existence, that the counting in of Hayes was the crowning outrage and crime of the century, yet these gentlemen, holding the peace and repose of the nation high above party or political advantage, stepped to the front and laid the tribute of their manhood upon the altar of the country, and the Union was saved. Mistaken they may have been; but they are of the material of which heroes are made-just the stuff for good sound Democracy; and that party could ill afford to part company with any such. Let Messrs. Scales and Yeates stay in.

The Integrity of the Democratic Party. The integrity of the Democratic party in North Carolina must be maintained. and that integrity can only be maintained by Democrats submitting themselves entirely to the party wish and will as in convention expressed.

Not for to-day, this campaign, or this year, but for all time must Democrats stand together if they hope for any good or vitality in Democratic principles, The great political struggle of the century has not yet come off; it will not come off this year or the next, but is reserved for 1880. There never was a time within the compass of its life as a party when the Democracy had greater need for unification, harmony and the husbanding of its strength and resources. Upon the shoulders of the Democracy of North Carolina will be thrown the weighty burden of a mighty responsibility in the next national contest. Nor for the purposes of the present campaign will the Democracy of this State find it expedient to relax the party discipline, or retire any portion of its forces into barracks or fortresses of inactivity. The field must be constantly and he went to Washington, bearing occupied and the utmost vigilance main- the Senatorial credentials of the State tained on the outposts. Otherwise of North Carolina. He was not permitdisintegration must result. Already are ted to participate in the deliberations there threats of too much independence of the highest national council. A of action. Independence in politics is slight was put upon the sovereignty of but another name for disintegration and North Carolina, and one of the great destruction. Independence from the States of the original thirteen was re-

There can be no such thing as independence in any party, for that means simply and only mutiny in camp. Parties are organized for the security and support of government, to foster the interests of society at large and for the mutual well-being and protection of the whole. In all such organization, the majority having expressed its opinion, the minority must of necessity acquiesce. The very conditions which make party organization a necessity, exclude all idea of independence, either of action, expression or discussion.

An independent Democrat is an impossibility. The term is a misnomer. All discussion or agitation that tends to independence in party matters is absolutely injurious, and we have entirely too much of it in North Carolina polities. If the State has a hope it hes in the Democratic party, and whatever is not orthodox in respect to this, politics is not Democracy. Disguise it as one may, reason as he will, independence in any form or guise, however specious or on what pretext it is attempted to be asserted or maintained, is treason to the Democratic party, if held or committed within its ranks,-outside it is open rebellion, antagonism, warfare. Let us have done with all futile effort at the unattainable in politics. There are but two ways and they lead distinctly apart. There are but two parties practicable, here at least, and that which is not of one must be of the other. Half-heartedness, coquetry, compliment or compromise in the ranks of one party afford aid and comfort to the other. Whoever in the Democratic party fails to assert boldly and broadly the uncompromising principles of Democracy, or does not vigorously and with his whole soul maintain and advocate these principles, pressing those of his own to the exclusion of every other party argument or political plausibility, if he be in prominence or occupy any public position, fails in true loyalty to his own, aids and encourages the other.

The Democratic party is nevertheless not an arbitrary organization. It is the creature and not the master of the people. They ascertain and declare their principles and policies, and such become the principles and policies of the party. It is always in the power of the people to alter, amend or modify, and save in the cardinal principles, parties are ever changing to adjust and accommodate themselves to circumstances. These are the results of progress and development; but compromising with the enemy is not one of the cardinal principles of Democracy. For the very excellent position which and neither change nor circumstances ever justify it. The enemy may combut the Democracy never. The good people of North Carolina know if there be any good thing in Democracy, or if that party is worth maintaining. If, as they have repeatedly said, and never with more emphasis in it, then let it be maintained fully and absolutely. If it be worthy of support, give it the full, hearty support of an earnest, honest, determined people. Declare in your township and county meetings, district and state Convenions what Democracy is, and what North Carolina Democracy means, and equire Democrats to come up to the tandard you shall so erect. Nominate your candidates, declare as you see fit your preference for candidates yet to be nominated, go into the caucus or convention, determined to subordinate your own personal prefernces to the expressed wish of the majority, honestly ascertained, and come weal or come woe, to abide the majority

It is not possible for the wishes of all o be consulted, or that the desires of every one shall prevail; but what is of infinitely higher importance, it is entirely within the power of every one to be a good party man. A good party man is the noblest work of politics. Through good or through evil report, come what may, who or how, he follows the standard of his party, and never falters until the hour of triumph, or defeated, he stands ready to renew the contest at the appointed time. To him party success or party integrity is greater than all personal considerations or individual preferences. Let us have then the heartiness of perfect accord in the ranks of North Carolina Democracy. Bowing to all party decision, abiding all party action, and supporting with a will of perfect unanimity all party nominations. This is the kind of Democracy it is the part of the News to teach and advocate. It is the Democracy of the fathers of Democracy, and there is not one particle of independence, compromise, compliment, coquetry or halt about it. It is Democracy pure and simple-the essence and integrity of the Democratic party.

The United States Senatorship. Wisely or unwisely, the issue has peen joined, and expression of preference for the high seat in the national legislature will not and cannot be suppressed in the present campaign,

This issue has been before the people of North Carolina for eight years. Ever since 1870, when the Democracy so overwhelmingly triumphed in the State, securing by an unexpected majority, the legislature, the matter of Senator at Washington has been a live issue among The expression of Democratic senti-the people of this old commonwealth. ment in the December caucus of 1870 was no uncertain sound. The preference there manifested was for Vance. line of one party as surely leads into the tired by a Radical sneer. A seat which

DAILY NEWS lines of the other as that light travels had been readily accorded a stranger from East to West. was "turned down" to a meritorious native and a patriotic North Carolinian. A Senator manufactured by bayonets, o military order, ascertained and certified by corrupt methods, and elevated upon a sentiment born of ignorance, degradation and prejudice, was welcomed to a council chamber where the highest merit in the representative consisted in traducing and violently misrepresenting a people to whom he was charged; and thus, for a period of more than two years, the honor and reputation of a great State was committed to the keeping of one whose interests and inclinations led him to blacken her record and humiliate her people.

In the winter of 1870, the Democracy of North Carolina stepped upon the threshold of the political situation, and in the majesty of its power asserted the honor and dignity of the State by declaring the will and preference of the people. That preference fell upon Z. B. Vance. The declaration of the Democracy in 1870, was that he should represent the State in the Senate of the United States. Excluded by Radical hate and malignity for the people from whom he came, as well as for the Senator whom they had sent, it became necessary for the choice of the people to lay down the commission with which they had sent him to Washington, and the second choice worthily fell upon the gallant

Two years later occurred another vacancy; the term of the last bayonet Senator had expired. In the meantime all political disability had been removed from Governor Vance, Radical Senators in voting for his relief so expressing themselves as to indicate that the Southern war Governor would find a welcome seat thereafter in the Senate council of the nation. The Democratic party came to Raleigh in November, 1872, with a large and decided majority in the Legislature. For United States Senator the caucus decided by more than twothirds for Vance. He was not elected in the open sessions of the Legislature. Judge Merrimon had friends and followers who would not be reconciled to Governor Vance, and after a protracted struggle the result was, by uniting with the entire body of the Republicans of both Houses, Judge Merrimon was chosen the Senator. This was deemed a remarkable state of things at the time; an extraordinary result, that the Democracy so vastly in the majority in the Legislature could not choose a Senator. And so it was, for the second time, the manifest wish and will of the Democratic party of North Carolina was trifled Attorney at Law.

But that will is not to be always thwarted. In its political councils the Democracy is, or ought to be, sovereign. If not supreme in the house of its followers and subjects, then the Democratic party of North Carolina is impotent for any policy or public good, and had better be disbanded. But supreme the Democratic party is, and sovereign than two years ago, there be great good | that party will prove itself in the future elections of this State. The election of a Senator is one of the first duties of next winter, and the voice of the Legislature will, this time, be the voice of the people. It has been determined by the Democracy of North Carolina that its wishes shall be respected and its power vindicated; and one can as easily stem the torrent of Niagara as resist the Democratic sentiment of North Carolina respecting Governor Vance and the United States Senate.

It is as an exponent of the Democratic sentiment of the State that the News unequivocally declares Vance for the Senatorship. As between Democrats, in ordinary contest, this paper would esteem it a breach of party discipline to express a preference for either, or advocate the claims of any one against others. But this is not an ordinary oc casion. The circumstances surrounding the situation are peculiar. The voice of an almost unanimous people proclaim for one man above all others; and the sentiment is, that by every consideration of right and justice to him. and asserting the degree of respect and manhood which they believe to belong to themselves, the great body of Democrats in North Carolina declare it to be the unalterable purpose of their lives to place Z. B. Vance in the Senate of the United States. With all respect to that will and purpose the News does and will give every aid in its power to the accomplishment and fulfillment of this great desire on the part of the Democratic people of North Carolina.

Fast Trotter.

Messis, Geo. W. Wynne & Co. have recently purchased the fast horse "Billy Gold," Paxton's celebrated trotter, who is well known to our turntes, having carried off prizes at our State Fairs. The horse will be trained specially for the next Fair.

A Family Affair.

Joun H. Smith, colored, with Eliza J. his wife, and their small daughter, were all jailed yesterday. The reason for their incarceration was that John and his wife had been stealing rags from Mr. Juo. H. Thompson, at the Neuse paper milis. They took the child with them that she might not be lonesome.

From Greensboro.

The Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School of Greensboro will visit this city on their annual pic-nic, on Tuesday next, June 4th. We shall be happy to see them in our beautiful city, and trust that their trip may prove entirely en-joyable to an. The Greensboro Cornet Band will accompany the excursionists.

Our Streets.

We hear some complaints, particularly on the part of drivers of teams, of the unevenness of some of our city thoroughtares. This they say is caused by lack of attention. We are sorry to know that such a state of things exists, and propose to take general observations and veutilate the subject. The streets at this season ought to be in perlect order.

Fertilizers.

All the analyses and values of the fertilizers whose sale is licensed in our State, have been collected and will soon be published in phamplet form, for distribution. These analyses and values were made and placed by Prof. A. R. Ledoux, at the State Chemical control station. They will prove useni to merchants and farmers, who can jus see the relative worth of each urand sold.

Peaches in May

We thank Messrs C. W. Westbrook & Co., proprietors of one of the finest nurseries in the South, at Greensboro, for their kindness in sending us a bas ket of peaches yesterday. The peaches are line, both as to size and flavor, and have never been seen here before at this season of the year. The Messis. Westbrook, it will be remembered always make a line exhibit at our Fairs. The peaches sent us are of the Amsden June variety.

Wake Criminal Court.

Court met at 10 a. m. yesterday, his Honor Judge Strong presiding. The case of Charles Johnson, for burglary, was continued, and occupied the entire day, T. M. Argo and J. E. Bledsoe, Esqrs., appeared for the defence, while Soncitor Devereux conducted the prosecution. The speeches of these gentlemen were of marked ability. The arranged them, and touched the springs. all day. The of an hour, returned a verdict of not guilty. The prisoner was, however, held on another indictment for larceny. Was entered the darkey was found on the floor, with fans all over and around him. The fans came from Brewster's.

Federal Decoration Day.

This day was observed here yester day by a large number of persons. The principal feature was the parade. After considerable delay the procession was formed at 5 P. M., with the right of the line on Cabarrus street. The participants in the procession were the Oak City Blues, Capt. A. Haywood; Oberlin Vauce Guards, Capt. J. Flagg, and East Raleigh Guards, Capt. Geo. Lane commanding. These companies were all colored. The Victor and Buckets Companies were also in the procession. the line of march was up Fayetteville to Hargett street, thence to the National Cemetery. arrival at the beautiful grounds, large crowd present gathered round the stand. A prayer was then offered by the Chaplain. At its conclusion, the Orator of the Day, Thos. R. Purnell, delivered the address, which is spoken of as being a fine effort.

These ceremonies concluded, the Oak City Blues fired three volleys. The graves of the fallen then each received floral tribute.

The number of persons present was unusually large, but under the management of A. Magnin, Esq., Chief, and Mr. C. A. Mattoon, Assistant Marshal, the best of order was observed.

Inspection of Troops.

After the conclusion of the ceremonies of Decoration Day yesterday, the colored troops were inspected in Love-joy's Grove by the Adjutant General. The inspection thus made was the annual one of all companies of the State Guard, which the Adjutant General is compelled to make. The troops present were companies A. D. and F., of --- Judge Kerr delivered two relithe 4th battalion, N. C. S. G. They were under command of Capt. A. Haywood, Senior officer, Lt. B. B. A careful inspection of the arms and accoutrements was then made by the Adjutant-General, in person. arms, etc., were found to be in admirable condition, worthy of special mention. The ceremonies were well conducted, and the impression made good.

Health of the City. Conversing with a physician yesterterday, we were by him informed that for this season of the year, the health of our city is unusually good, in fact bet-ter than in many seasons. The amount of sickness among the children is re-markably slight. But we have so far been blessed with weather not oppressive, until within a day or two. Preeautions must needs be taken, lest the summer heats, now upon us, breed pestilence. The danger recurs every ummer, and every precaution that judgment can devise should be taken o guard against such perils. The health fficer should be untiring and unceasing in vigilance, and should be aided in his efforts by all. This matter of public health should be a chief thought with us now, when the dangerous season is

Early Closing.

The action taken by our booksellers, in regard to closing their establishments at 8 P. M. for three months following, is so sensible, that it very properly attracts much attention among our busi-Farm to-day, leaving the R. & G. Depot ness public. Consider the question; what is the use, where is the necessity of keeping open till far in the night. when even in the day there is no trade. The dull scason has shut down on business. Why should an employee wear out soul, body and patience standing, hour after hour, waiting and watching for the customer who never comes Never an evening has he that he can call his own. Let our merchants in every business, look at this matter, and

Description of the Counterfeit. The following is the description of the new counterfeit $50 note on the National Broadway Bank of New York city, which has made its appearance in northern cities, and may reach us soon: On the genuine the end of the oar in the hand of the soldier in the bow of the boat touches the circle surrounding the '50" in the border of the note. On the counterfeit it does not touch the border of the note, and is quite a distance below the circle. On the genuine the letter "t" in the words "to bearer" is one-sixteenth of an inch distant from the oar in stern of boat.

Democratic Township Commit-

On the counterfeit it touches.

This Committee meets in Metropolitan Hall to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock. It is desired that every Democrat, every one opposed to the Republican party, be present, that they may express their preference as to our county officers. Let the attendance be full. so that satisfaction may be entire, and let those who do not feel sufficiently interested in the matter to be present, not express dissatisfaction, but forever hold their peace. The Chairman of the Committee asks that this announcement be

Base Ball.

A number of gentlemen of our city, many of whom are ex-members of old clubs, have organized a new base ball club, to be known, probably, as the "Athletic." Members have already joined to the number of about 30. The grounds will be in Nash Square. The Junior Club is the recipient of challenges for a match game from no less than three Goldsboro clubs. The interest in our national game is surrely on the increase. We need something of the sort, having now almost no pastimes, except croquet, and billiards, draw poker, etc. Satisfied Curiosity.

A few days since a gentlemanof our city became the purchaser of three fly fans. These he had conveyed to his residence, giving them in charge of his dinning room servant. The latter made inquiries as to how the affairs were opperated, as d was desirons to have them put in operation at once. His curiosity was not satisfied, as his employer made no exhibitions of the working of the fans. The darkey waited for an oppertunity and took the fans into a room. His screams caused all in the house jury, after remaining out three quarters to rush to his aid. When the room

What the Community Thinks.

It is a well-established fact that man's aue and unchangeable value lies in his deeds and actions; no matter what principle he may claim, they will only be recognized by an intelligent community as the true standard of his character; and when the Democrats of Raleigh placed their confidence in a man to represent their interest in the City Council, they did it with the view that he would exert his influence and abilities in the common public interest, and op-pose any set of men whose aim has the stamp of egotism. We think that our city can well afford to dispense with the services of a few of the brothers-in-law. but the tax-payers of Raleigh are exceedingly loath to lose the services of a gentleman like Mr. Blake, whose integrity, eminent financial talent, and increasing efforts have restored the almost hopeless condition of our city finances to their present healthy and sound standard; and may Mr. Blake be satisfied that the tax-payers and true Democrats of Raleigh stand behind him, and earnestly hope that his resignation will not be accepted, but that he will continue to guide our finances safe through all the narrow and treacherous channels, for when you touch a man's pocket, you touch his soul.

Masouic. There will be a special meeting of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, to-night. As business of importance will come before the Craft, members will meet promptly at 8 o'clock.

We Differ With Him.

Of course he will be sorely troubled to hear it, yet we cannot agree with Governor Wade Hampton, of South Carolina, in a "remark he made" to a newspaper "interviewer" a few days since. 'Twas in relation to the Potter investigation bill, at that time pending before Congress, and Gov. H. said, amongst other things:
"I do not believe that Mr. Hayes is.

or has been, implicated in any such fraud. As Judge Cloud would say, "right thar" we split.

We do believe that Hayes was a party to the whole villainy. Either, this is true, or he is a fool. And he never should have been allowed to take his seat as president. But let him stay-his "term" of fraud and roguery will not last long-be is powerless as long as the democracy control the House-let the fraud and thief remain where he is, but be very sure that Democratic supremacy be main-

A Manifest Absurdity. A Manifest Absurdity.

It is manifestly absurd to claim for a mere stimulant, tonic and alterative properties, let this is what is daily done by the vendors of cheap local bitters, colored to make them look attractive, and agreeably flavored but the alcoholic basis of which is of the vilest and most hurtful description. Te transcendent success of hostetier's Stomach Bitters, the leading alterative tonic of the United States, has il duced many of these compounders if drams in disguise, to attempt the counterfeiting of this standard medicine, but their efforis have never proved successful on a large scale, and they have then serves in many lisstances notoriously "come fo grief," through the instrumentality of the law.

The genuine Rifters have indeed services.
